YOUTH & CHILDREN'S MINISTER

All Saints is an evangelical Anglican church serving Eight Ash Green, Fordham and the wider Colchester area. We are committed to knowing Jesus Christ and making Him known through God's Word, the Bible. We are looking for a faithful, enthusiastic and skilled Christian man to lead and develop our ministries to 0-18s. The role includes schools work, Sunday children's ministry, Friday night youth work, all age services and developing volunteer teams. Key qualities:

- a heart commitment to young people coming to faith and growing in faith.
- the ability to communicate the Bible clearly and with warmth, marked by personal godliness and integrity.
- evangelical convictions regarding the Bible, the cross and mission.
- someone who shares our complementarian theology regarding men and women in ministry and family.
- previous ministry experience and some theological training.
- someone who can build relationships with parents and encourage a culture of family devotions at home.
